“ I unfortunately just learned of my dear cousin's death on Facebook and could not believe she was really gone. She's had so many years of battling her disease, like a champ, and I could not believe she was really gone. We talked several months ago and she said she was ready & willing to meet her maker. I know she is with Him now. I treasured our many years of memories and our almost annual visits when I came to be with Marie.

I had a note on my calendar to call her for the past 3 weeks to check on her but having surgery issues with husband, so failed to call. Wish I had known. Would have been there. My sincere condolences to the children (my second cousins). I pray someone will take good care of Ruben.
