“ I cannot tell you how much My Amazing Godmother, Martha Gross was! But let me try! I met her and Mr. Bill in 1999 while working for a map company and I was told she was nice and knew a lot of people in Scottsboro, so our journey began. It led into dinners with them and telling me to get out the hotel and come stay with them instead. Then I started coming over every time I was in the area. So many nights on the porch, at the table with yummy food, putting puzzles together with Mr. Bill and watching Wheel of Fortune..

Then we lost him in 2011, I can still hear, "Come give me a hug Sweet Thang." Still miss him to this day. We became so close and had so many nights hanging out in her home and we always had our August Celebratory B-Day Dinner. We laughed we cried and we drank wine! She was my Godmother, as God gave her to me. She loved, respected, cherished, valued me, accepted me, praised me, was thankful for me and understood me. I hadn't had that and I Treasured it and the Amazing Lady that gave me so much!

She worried to death about my online dating and just knew I would end up dead, which I laughed! I would say Ms. Martha, I am sooooo careful, but she loved me and wanted to protect me and I loved it actually! So when she and Tom met in 2018 she loved him! She could see how much he loved me and it truly filled her with joy. We, Ms, Martha, Tom and I had so fun much hanging out on her porch, going to Opryland Hotel, The Read House and her favorite place in Scottsboro, The Docks.

She fought a long battle with a vicious disease until she was ready to go home and that is what she did yesterday, she went HOME. I just want to HONOR Ms. Martha and tell the world how Amazing this Sweet Precious Lady was. If you met her and really knew her you would know, if you hadn't you so missed out!

Have a wonderful celebration in Heaven with Mr, Bill! Love Ya So Much, your Daughter! Lee Ann Bragg Wacaster
