“ *I was honored to meet Sister Martha Willmon over 45 years ago. She exuded the genuine love of Christ and welcomed everyone. She was multitalented and inspired many young women to become a better version of themselves. She was a jewel and will truly be remembered and missed. What a beautiful legacy of love and mercy that Brother Charles and Sister Martha have left behind. ❤️🙏

“ Mrs. Willmon was the Queen of the Assisted Living at Fleming Farm. I never once herd her whisper a negative word about anyone or anything. Every morning I would take her breakfast She always had that beautiful smile and she never hesitated to ask me about my day. Mrs. Martha you will be missed. I will miss seeing that beautiful Christmas Tree. Rest well my Queen, you will be missed by the Fleming Farm Assisted Living Family.

“ So sorry to hear this. I was never around her much other than at decorations & funerals, but I loved seeing her and her sweet spirit that was always shown by that smile & the light in her eyes. The last time I saw her was at Charles' service. I know she is rejoicing to be with her precious husband again, as well as, all of the rest of our big ole' family that has preceded her.

Love & prayers for the rest of the family.
