“ I had the privilege of teaching with Faye at Richard Hardy. When I first met her, I was immediately struck by her beauty and that unforgettable southern accent. Faye was an excellent teacher that touched so many lives. Faye was the ultimate southern lady! Thank you Faye for all you have done to make such a difference in this world. We all have truly been blessed by your presence.

“ I had the privilege of working with Faye when she taught at Richard Hardy Memorial School. She was the seventh and eighth grade Reading Teacher and I was the Librarian. I enjoyed watching her tell her students that every book had it's on unique smell. She was a remarkable lady and teacher. She made her students fall in love with books. I am deeply sadden by her death and her family is in my thoughts and prayers. Good bye lovely Southern lady.

Sincerely,
