

Melba Maynor

December 16, 2011

Melba Ruth Williams Maynor peacefully died December 16, 2011. Mrs. Maynor was born November 16, 1920 in Henegar, Alabama.

Mrs. Maynor was preceded in death by her husband Herman Doyle Maynor and her grandson Adam Durian. She is survived by daughters Brenda Meadows (Roger), Marty Durian (Dave), and Julie LeQuire. Her grandchildren include Dale Meadows (Meg), Zach Meadows (Lara), Mary Stanley (Dennis), Julie Meadows, Amy Backhaus (Paul), Josh LeQuire (Kristen), and Anna LeQuire. Great-grand children are Bo, Ellie, and Henry Meadows, Zachary and Gracie Meadows, Caroline and Brooke Garrison, Ben and Laura LeQuire, Lilly Separ, and Emma LeQuire.

Mrs. Maynor was married for forty-seven years and spent twenty-five years of her marriage traveling extensively as the duty of a military family. Upon retirement from Mr. Maynor's career in the Air Force, Scottsboro became their home in 1963. She has been a resident of Birmingham since 2003.

A graveside memorial service will be held Monday, December 19, 2011 at Pine Haven Cemetery at 10:00 am. The service will be led by Reverend Bob Hatfield of Dawson Memorial Baptist Church in Birmingham. Arrangements are by Scottsboro Funeral Home, 1502 County Park Road, Scottsboro, AL 35769.

Tribute Wall

“ Melba Maynor

---

October 05, 2023 at 01:26 AM

“ To Brenda, Marty and Julie; I was so sorry to hear about the death of Melba. I know your hearts were broken as mine was to lose your Mother. It was so soon after I lost Dad and I'm sorry to have not been able to contact you. I didn't know the addresses or how to contact anyone. With deepest sympathy Barbara Wynn Penchosky

---

Barbara Penchosky - December 11, 2012 at 09:15 AM