“ I'm so sorry for the loss of a beautiful woman. I've known Melissa when she worked at Gino's. She has been my hairdresser for some time now, and I have got to know her even better. I cannot say how much I loved her, because words just cannot describe it. I will miss her so much, and after all the praying, God knew her Path in Life. My condolences to Josh and the boys, her mom and dad, and all other family members. She is at peace, with that beautiful smile. God Bless you Melissa, you are a beautiful angel.

“ My sunflower I will see you again we just thought you gleamed with beauty here before us but when we see you again you will gleam so bright you will take our breath away more than you ever have here it will be beautiful. enjoy walking those streets of gold for we will come and join you one day. Yeah I know you never thought a sunflower could walk but this one can. This sunflower stood tall and gleamed with beauty through toughest and roughest weather conditions. Man she was a amazing beauty one of a kind! I read where my sunflower said to look around there is always something good , well my sunflower I truly believe that as well. Sunflower you showed so many how to have and keep their faith in the Lord otlr savior Jesus Christ and he can help us through any storm ! This is not goodbye but see ya soon. Love you sunflower keep shining on!
