“ Happy Heavenly Birthday. Today would be your 67th birthday. I can't believe it's been 7 years. I can't imagine the celebration you are having today, in heaven with all of your family home now. Look for me, I will be there too. I love and miss you everyday !!!!!

“ I can't believe it has been 5 years, since you were called home. There isn't a day that goes by I don't think of you and miss you terribly. My world hasn't been the same since you left. I can't wait to see you again, where there will be no more parting. Look for me, for I will be there too. MOH.

“ It's been 37 months now, since you went home to be with the Lord. I still can't believe that this is not a nightmare or dream. I keep expecting to wake up and you be here. I know you are at rest with the Lord, and I can't even imagine how beautiful it must be there. I know you were there to welcome your Mom home. I know she was happy to see you. I will see you when my journey is finished here. My world was a better place because of you. I will forever be grateful.

“ I think you every day, and I miss you so bad. My world hasn't been the same without you, and it will never be the same. I know you are strolling across heaven with Ann, your Daddy, Dot, Ricky and all the others that went before, or joined you later. I will meet you at Jesus feet, when it's my time to come home.

“ Where has 2 years gone ?. It all still seems like a really bad dream. There isn't a day that goes by that I don't think of you. I miss you more than you or I could have ever imagined. I know you are in a better place, but the selfishness in me wants you here. But, look for me someday because I will be there too.

“ It has been almost 14 months, since you made your journey home. There are days it seems like it has been forever, and days that it seems like it was yesterday. I miss you so very much. Dexter has grown so much, and still just as wild as he was and he misses you too. I never thought I would have a day without you in it. I have now lived almost 14 months without you, and still can't believe you are gone forever. You were the best friend I have ever been blessed with. I loved you then, I love you now and will always love you.

“ It has been a month since you left. I still can not process this, that you are gone forever. I will always hold a special place for you in my heart that no one can take away. My world was certainly a better place because of you. I miss you so much, I miss talking to you and hearing your voice, your laughter, your frustration. But most of all I miss you.

“ I keep expecting this all to be a dream. I don't even know how to process this. You have been my best friend for 17 years. All I know is the world was a better place because of you. The world has now lost an amazing man, with a heart of gold. Rest easy until we meet again on the other side.

“ So sorry to hear about Steve. I worked with Steve many years ago at Walmart. He was a very sweet and special friend. May God be with you all in this time of sorrow.
