“ I tried my best to write something a bit more personal for my grandma, but I really just couldn't do it. Every time I thought of her I realized just how much she cared for all of us. I was just lucky to be among the many family and friends that got to share in that love.

She was an incredibly funny person that always had a joke to tell to anyone listening and an even better cook that always had a meal ready to feed anyone who was hungry. I know the only thing she loved just as much as us were her precious puppies. She was absolutely the glue that held this tight knit family together for over more than forty years.

With my Grandpa Kenneth they enjoyed over 60 years of marriage and countless children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and even great great grandchildren. It's hard to even think of what life will be without her, but I know that she was loved and cherished by many.

I will always miss my grandma. I can never thank her enough for everything she had ever done for me. There will always be a part of me that wished I could have done a little more to repay even a tiny bit of the love and kindness she gave, but I know that would be impossible. She just had too much love to give.

I love you, Grandma Kenneth and I always will.

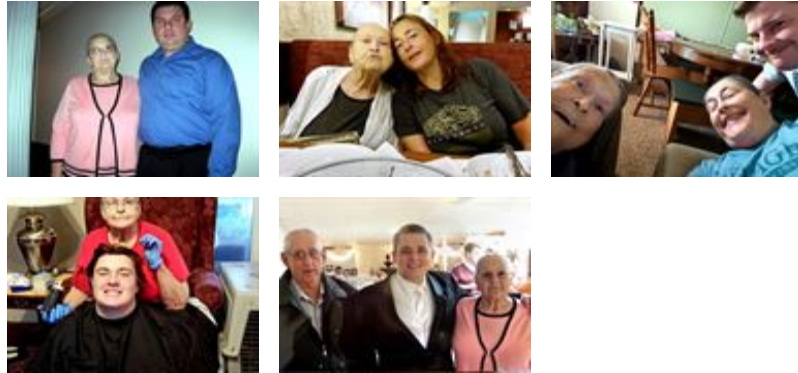

Love, Nick.
