Olive Louise Cline Kirby, age 89, of Birmingham, Alabama passed away peacefully at her home. She grew up and lived most of her life in Scottsboro, Alabama. Born on April 5, 1936, Louise was the daughter of the late James Edward Cline Sr. and Bernie Lee Gamble Cline. She was also preceded in death by her devoted husband of 72 years Gene, her brother, James Edward Cline, Jr., and sisters, Bobbie Jean Brock and Margaret Jarrell.

Louise worked most of her life in medically related positions from the Red Cross, Medical and Dental offices, to over 25 years of service in Administration with Highlands Medical Center (formerly Jackson County Hospital).

Louise was an avid reader and had many hobbies from crocheting and coloring to playing on her ipad for hours and working thousands of crosswords.
