“ I worked with Rayford for several years, he was an extraordinary, kind, wonderful person. He always enjoyed the social interaction with his colleagues during birthdays, potlucks, and even the monthly meetings. Rayford loved talking about Crimson Tide football, everytime we would see each "Roll tide" he would tell me. I remember working late one Friday night and Rayford came by my office and said in his soft voice "Fidel you should be chasing some dames and enjoying life its friday"..i chuckled and said your right Rayford lets get out of here and enjoy life. Rayford you will be missed by all, Roll Tide my good friend, may god bless you and your family.

“ I served with RL in Marine Corps squadron VMFA 513 from 1962 to 1965. We travelled together with 513 from El Toro air base in California to Japan, the Philippines and a tour of Vietnam at the Danang airbase. Sharing these experiences form a special bond between people. I met Ray again later in life and it was like 45 years had never passed. There are many things you can say about a wonderful person like RL, but probably the most important thing I remember is that you could always count on RL.

“ Ray was liked by everyone. Often we would meet in the kitchen to brew coffee and it was a treat to talk to him. Although he was soft-spoken he had a great sense of humor and he was always ready to share a good laugh with anyone. He’s already being missed by all who knew him.
