“ So sorry to hear of Bob's passing. We attended Shiloh Church with Bob and Shirley. He always had a smile on his face and was so friendly. He sure did like to sing to the Lord. - Brent and Denise Hall

“ *Kristen and Perry,
We are so sorry about Bob but so happy that he is with Shirley now. Wish you could have had visitation so we could catch up with your lives. Don't forget us because we loved you and your mom and dad very dearly. A weird thing happened to me Thursday morning. I was coming back from town and looked at their house as I went by and had this feeling that I would never see Bob again and he stayed on my mind all day. We have truly missed seeing both of them for so long but we will see them again in the not too distant future.
Love to both of you,
Russell and Judy*

Wow, so very thankful you guys responded, we love and miss you all. It was very hard not seeing all of you at visitation, I sure dad did not mind he was in the loving arms of our Savior. His wish to see mom became reality as well. We did not say goodbye just see you later in paradise. Thanks so very much for your post. We love and miss you all. Gods Blessing to you guys

Amy, thanks so much for praying for us. Prayer means so much to us. We got to spend the day praying with my dad before he stepped out of this world and stepped into eternity with Christ Jesus. I can only imagine! This was the reason for his joy on earth.

God Blessing to you and your family.
