

Mr. Robert Bradford

February 27, 1937 - December 30, 2020

It's with heavy hearts but peaceful spirits that we share the news of the death of our beloved husband, proud father and doting grandfather, great grandfather and a supportive brother, James Robert Bradford known to most as Robert Bradford. Born February 27th, Robert was 83 years young when he went to meet The Lord on Wednesday, December 30, 2020. Robert was a lifetime resident of Scottsboro, AL. He loved his home and community. He was a loyal member of Center Point Baptist where he served faithfully over the years as a church trustee, church treasurer and deacon. He served his country in Korea and was a very proud veteran. “ I remember Robert from our high school days. He was a dear friend and a pleasant and kind fellow to be around. He was a great help to me by printing articles I needed in my pastoring at Bethany at Section and Hollywood. I am glad our paths crossed in this life and I look forward to seeing him in Heaven. I am praying for the family.
