“ There's no amount of words to begin describing how much love and respect he had for not only me but for everyone. I remembered the day we first met at work. I'll cherish the memories of him to the fullest. There's no words to describe how much I appreciate him or even love as a brother.

“ Robert was one of the first people I met my freshman year of highschool after moving across state, he made me feel welcomed and like I always had a friend. When I moved again he made the efforts to come see me. He always brought people together and I think that’s what made everyone love him more. He was always there, no matter what. He always worked, loved, and pushed his hardest. He never failed to make someone laugh and he was one of the biggest goofballs. Even when he was having a bad day he still made the effort to put a smile on his face. He always took the time to get to know anyone and everyone. I’m going to miss him and I know a lot of people will. He truly was one of the brightest and kindest souls.

“ Where do I even begin.
I have known Robert my entire life, and for as long as I can remember he has always accepted me as his sister, he always made sure I knew he loved me. He was very funny, charismatic, easy going, and overall just a really good guy. He was an amazing brother, boyfriend, and dad. Throughout the last several years I have seen my brother mature into a young godly man. I love you so much Robert. I will miss you.
I will see you on the other side.
Until We meet again.

Such a sweet, handsome little boy that I got the privilege to watch grow into a fine, handsome young man. Robert's had a special place in our heart since the day we got the call. Many fond memories with him. Going to miss that knucklehead tremendously but I have the hope of seeing him again one day. Thank God for grace and hope. Thank God for the short time I got to be a small part of Robert's life.

Until then. See you soon boy.
