“ Family and Friends of Robert Webb. I send to you my condolences and prayers. I pray especially for Patsy and Glenn for the loss of their dad. The “Webb Boys” were my second cousins.

My last association with Robert was in the late 60s. He was the coach of a softball team, which played in Scottsboro. I played on his team with his son-in-law, Ray Reed. I moved to Huntsville, AL in 1969.

I remember Robert's easy grin and his soft manner of speech. I can see him in my mind as I write. For him, the grin was easy and natural. I never saw Robert upset nor did I hear anything negative from his lips. I would think those traits would have been revealed in the softball competition. Especially when things were going south at times.

His mild manner and easy gait , I see even now as I write. Without uttering a word, Robert conveyed a message. The message ,”I care about you, I have your back, you can do it.”

I was not a Christian at the time, but I have come to know Robert Webb loved the Lord Jesus Christ, his personal Savior. If one knew Robert Webb on a personal basis, their lives were made richer by Robert's presence. I'm grateful for the many times, our respective journeys in life crossed on planet earth.

I know the pain in your hearts concerning the loss of Robert. The pain will ease with time. You will have your memories of Robert. Enjoy the memories. I have as I was writing his tribute. God bless you.

*Love in Christ,
Raymond O. Webb*
