“ God has given a precious angel her golden crown with beautiful Jewels. I remember the first time I met you. I hired you to be a part of our team to cook for the residents . You expressed how you would loved and be honored to have the position. You showed it not only through your cooking but in action making them happy. You were one of the most honest person I knew and I would always expressed that. You was a true friend even when we didn't get our talk everyday. I know your family will miss you dearly. I pray for God to comfort them in this time of need. This is not a good bye its I will see you later sweet friend.
