“ Robn Lynn Dulaney Loy, was someone if you met her, you never forgot her. She was the most loved and giving persons, you could ever meet and not love!! The hardest part of her life was when she lost her "Daddy" in a tragic accident!! She never quite got over that! She was his "Baby Lynn"!! She loved her son, Jason, and always made sure he was taken care of, in school and in church. Next to Jason, her greatest love was her sister, Bridget, grandchildren, which she claimed as her own!!! She had just been able to visit her a few weeks ago and see Bridget new grandbaby, "Nora", who Lynn named after her Aunt!! Please keep our family in your prayers as we learn how to live without Linnie!!

“ I only knew Lynn for a short time. In the 1970s, I drove the school bus that picked up Lynn, Keith and Bridget. Lynn always had a bright and happy attitude and was considerate of others. I learned to love her and all of the family. I will pray for their comfort as they are separated for a while here on earth.

“ I remember when we came to town for Ora's funeral and Lynn took my mom, Sharon Hastings Adair and I to see the bat cave, and to visit Nora, then we visited the old Methodist church where my great grandfather (my grandfather Ken Hastings dad) was buried and then we went across the street to see the Delaney and other Hasting plots. Some of them were hasting and some were Hastings. Lynn was fun to be around. She always had a smile on her face. With love and sincere condolences. Amanda Jane Adair Lavelle.
