“Bro. Rodney was more than just a brother in the lord to me and my family and will miss him dearly. He was a friend, a big brother, and a partner in our business. I remember him telling us so many times he didn't know why he was suffering with this but if it could help just one person than he was willing to suffer it. He loved to work, he loved his family, and he loved his friends dearly. He lived and worked hard to take care of his family and others but most importantly to serve the lord. He used to sit at work sometimes and tell testimonies and encourage so many when they were down spiritually or physically. Even as his eye sight started getting worse and his health started failing he would come into work and do all he could. He didn't complain about hurting or the fact that he couldn't see because he wanted to be the best help he could and didn't want to burden anyone. During his time being sick whether he ever realized it or not he helped so many people through his faith and his unwavering commitment to the lord. I was fortunate to see him at home on more than one occasion when a brother or sister would come by to see him and they my be low in spirit and him, as sick as he was, be an encouragement and light to them. I will miss him dearly and I love him more than I could ever show him.”
