“ Brother Roger was such a sweet, loving man. I enjoyed worshipping with him and especially enjoyed the time when he was in charge of announcements at church. His wife, Teresa, was a devoted caregiver and companion - it was obvious that Roger trusted her completely to help him and meet his needs during his final years. My heart grieves for her and his family. He will be missed!

“ Teresa, John, and Chris
Our hearts are saddened over Roger's passing. We will always cherish the memories of the good times we had when you were our neighbors for all of those years. We will never forget Roger! We will always remember him as a wonderful Christian man!

Love,
Deborah, William, and Jeffrey Jones
