“ We spent many a night on the riverbank, singing karaoke or just walking around Walmart doing absolutely nothing but always having a good time. Ol Ron let us all crash with them when we needed a place, and we all needed a place quite often back then. I love that family and wished I would've gone to see him more but unfortunately like we all do sometimes I took him being there for granted and therefore missed an opportunity to see my friend forever. Mikey and Tim are both brothers of mine and I hope they know they can always call or come by anytime they need anything, love y'all.
