

Ms. Sally Swan Reynolds

June 15, 1959 - January 22, 2020

Ms. Sally Swan Reynolds, 60, of Scottsboro, former resident of Birmingham, died on Wednesday, January 22, 2020. She was a devout Christian and member of Scottsboro First Baptist Church. She was very active in her church and community. She volunteered at Turning Point Pregnancy Center. She graduated Scottsboro High School in 1977 and McWhorter School of Pharmacy, Samford University in 1982.

While Sally had many interests, none could compare to the love and joy she experienced when spending time with her nieces and nephews. There was never a birthday, holiday, or special occasion that Sally didn't leave an indelible print on each of them. No matter how Sally may have felt, she never let it prevent her from learning to satchet across the floor or flip pancakes.

Sally was an avid Alabama Crimson Tide fan and enjoyed ballroom dancing and Christian music. Sally was a giver, and gave to others with all of her heart. She will be remembered as one of the kindest, compassionate, caring people who never met a stranger. She made you feel like you belonged, that you were important. She was an angel on earth. And now she is an angel who is dancing with her Father in Heaven.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, January 30, 2020 at 1:00 p.m. at First Baptist Church of Scottsboro with Rev. Shandy Dill officiating. She will lie in state at the church from 12 noon until time of service. A visitation will be held on Wednesday, January 29, 2020 at Scottsboro Funeral Home from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.

Ms. Reynolds is survived by her mother, Jane Wheat Reynolds; sister, Robin Reynolds (Dale) Harden; brother, Wes (Dawn) Reynolds; nieces and nephews, Anna Harden (Rick) McCay, Claire Harden (Bryan) Gulas, Jacob Wesley Reynolds, and Morgan Cacyce Reynolds; great niece and nephew, Hope Lindsey McCay and Samson Abel McCay; and fur baby, Mattie.

She was preceded in death by her father, Harold W. Reynolds.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to First Baptist Church or Turning Point Pregnancy Center.

“ My heart is so saddened learning the loss of Sally. My prayers go out to the entire family. In my first year of college at the University of Alabama, I had the great fortune of meeting her sister Robin. I got to know this great family through my friendship with Robin in my college years. Wes and Sally were such a big part of of Robin's life. The three of them were connected and had a special bond. I know that this is a unimaginable to them to not have her in their lives. Sally is now in God's loving hands. My love and prayers go out to the entire family.

“ Always a smile and kind word for everyone she met no matter how she felt. And she was so proud of and so loved her nieces and nephew and now two grands. She will be missed. We love you, Sally. But we know you are dancing in heaven!

“ My world will be a little dimmer without Sally's infectious laugh, servant spirit, artistry, selfless dedication, and fervent love for and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. On the other hand, the glory of heaven will shine a little brighter than before - Sally has arrived!

*It’s never easy to say goodbye ;
But we must go on & live our lives .*

*It surely hurts when the one gone is one of us ;
But our comfort comes from knowing – in God we trust .*

*And take comfort in knowing – they’re “not really gone” ;
But they are with us & want us to go on . . .*

*There are so many people that truly care ;
You must open-up & let them share --- your pain .*

*So take this help from those – that loved them too ;
But know - this is just a start on what YOU must do .*

May God’s peace be with you . . .

*And a way to “help” ease the pain ;
Is to think of your loss as Heaven’s gain .*

“ My cousin Sally was one of the most angelic women that I have ever had the privilege to have known. She never put herself first. She was so loving and kind to everyone she met or came in contact with. She loved her family so very much. She will be missed. She is no longer in pain and she is the presence of the King. She gets to see her precious daddy . He and Sally were so much alike to me. He was a wonderful daddy and she loved him dearly as we all did. Now she gets to see her daddy too. And all of her deceased relatives. Sally we will be together one day again. I know it is beautiful... Love you Tom...
