

Mr. Sam Woodall

October 14, 1939 - October 25, 2021

Mr. Horace "Sam" Woodall, age 82 of Skyline, Alabama passed away Monday, October 25, 2021 at Huntsville Hospital. Sam was born in Paint Rock Valley on October 14, 1939. The son of Leonard & Hattie Morris Woodall. Always a worker, Sam was a successful concrete finisher in the Jackson County area for many years. During his spare time, he enjoyed playing poker and digging Ginseng. But above all those things, Sam was a loving father, grandfather, best friend, and best provider who would help anyone at anytime.

Mr. Woodall is survived by his wife of 56 years, Evelyn Jane Woodall; children, Jason Woodall (Candace) and Denise Woodall (Michael); bonus son/grandson, Jessie Dale Woodall; grandchildren, Aaron Thomas, Travis Thomas, Ethan Rorex, Taylor Woodall, and Jordan Woodall; great grandchildren, Aaliyah Thomas, Kennedy Thomas, Levi Thomas, Jude Woodall, and Laylah Rorex; brother, Bobby Woodall (Catherine); special friends, Steve Sims and Bubba Martin; several nieces and nephews; and a whole host of friends.

Along with his parents, Sam was preceded in death by his sons, Horace Woodall, Jr.; parents-in-law, Jessie & Ilene Morris; twin brother, Dorace Woodall; brothers, E.J. Woodall and Bill Woodall; and sister, Mary Bailey.

“ Uncle Sam, a pillar of a man we all admired and thoroughly enjoyed during the times we spent with him and his close family. I knew him for 50 years and enjoyed our times around the kitchen table at Ilene's sharing a meal and playing poker into the wee hours of the night. Sam helped my Dad get into business for himself over 50 years ago and I was always so thankful for his thoughtful help when it was desperately needed. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him, and I know all who passed before him have met him at the Pearly Gates of Heaven to embrace him in spiritual love. May God rest his soul and comfort those in need during these difficult days. In Jesus name we pray... Amen.
