“ Tom was a friend, mentor, neighbor, and much more to my son Robert. In a world where a positive role model is increasingly hard to find, he served as an inspiration for my son. Our family was saddened when Tom moved his family to Alabama but Robert managed to stay in touch with Tom and Rita and visit from time to time.

It is with heart felt sorrow and appreciation for his influence that we mourn his passing. Our family is better for having known him and we are grateful for his service to our country as a Marine. He will not be forgotten in our household.

May he rest in peace with our Lord, and may the Lord bless and comfort his family.- John and Barbara Chapman, Fort Pierce, FL

“ I first met Tom about 1980 during construction of St. Lucie Nuclear Power Plant in Florida and we have been co-workers and more than anything, very close friends ever since.

I always admired how Tom could climb and work high locations. He always tried to give me advice to build up my confidence to get up there with him. That was probably the only thing he wasn't very successful at. Tom and I traveled and stayed together at small motels up in Connecticut at the Millstone Nuclear Power Plant. We made that trip a couple of times. It is very hard to find someone that you can share a tight space like a motel room with and also work with all day long. Tom and I got along great. I cannot think of one time we ever had a disagreement. At St. Lucie, I was day shift General Foreman and Tom was night shift General Foreman during repair and refueling shutdowns. We were a team like this for years. Tom had the respect of all of the Boilermakers and deservedly so. My wife Bunny and I always enjoyed just sitting around and talking with him about his adventures as a Marine and his service in Korea. I will always cherish all the days and adventures we shared with Tom. Tommy, my friend, you will be truly missed.
