“ I was sorry to learn of the passing of this beautiful, sweet, Christian lady. I attended Corinth Baptist Church with Wilma and Mr. Ben for a number of years. Her daughter, Rita Tippens, was one of my sister’s best friends. I, too, was a teacher of both Rita and Sharon. Because of these connections, I knew Mrs. Wilma well. She was always beautifully dressed and a great contributor to her church, family and community. I was always greeted by a beautiful smile, and a welcoming heart. I know she is happy to join Brother Ben in her Heavenly home. She’s no longer in pain, and I pray God will wrap his loving arms around her family , bringing, peace, comfort and understanding.
